

FINANCIAL AID CONSORTIUM AGREEMENTS

Saint Louis University may enter into Financial Aid Consortium Agreements with other institutions, which provide sound, unique, full-time, full-semester educational experiences that are not available at SLU. These agreements allow Saint Louis University to process certain types of financial aid for a student's use for no more than one year at the other institution.

The deans of individual colleges must evaluate and may approve, on a case-by-case basis, the academic merit of the study-away experience/coursework and its transferability to the student's University degree program. Such Financial Aid Consortium Agreements will allow students, contingent on aid program regulations, to utilize only the federal Pell grant, federal Stafford loan, federal Parent loan programs in meeting the costs of attendance at the consortium institution.

Students wanting to initiate a Financial Aid Consortium Agreement should consult and complete this Consortium Agreement Information Packet (<https://www.slu.edu/financial-aid/-pdf/consortium-agreement.pdf>). Students can contact Saint Louis University Office of Student Financial Services (<https://www.slu.edu/financial-aid/>) for additional information regarding this process.
