

MEDIA PRODUCTION, MICROCREDENTIAL

This four-course microcredential in media production will allow SLU students to enhance their knowledge of different contexts for media production and become more capable of learning new technologies and skills in their careers.

Admission Requirements

For current, active Saint Louis University students wishing to declare a microcredential, complete the Update for Student Curriculum Record form (<https://ask.slu.edu/TDClient/30/Portal/Requests/ServiceDet/?ID=160>).

For non-Saint Louis University students, click here to apply as a Visiting/ Non-Degree Seeking Student. (<https://www.slu.edu/admission/visiting-students.php>)

Learning Outcomes

- Students will create digital messages relevant to the audience, purpose and context.
- Students will apply ethical communication principles and practices.
- Students will implement media production tools (video, audio, photography, graphic design) appropriately in digital media creation.
- Students will plan and implement iterative, multiversion media projects that are progressively refined by external critique and personal reflection.
- Students will reflect on the effectiveness of varied digital media strategies and tools for conveying information and crafting persuasive and accessible arguments.
- Students will develop a portfolio of digital media work in their chosen discipline(s).
