

LATIN, MINOR

Saint Louis University offers a minor in the Latin language and its literature. Latin classes at SLU are small and interdisciplinary, encouraging open and collaborative dialogue among students and instructors. Our courses concentrate on reading culturally formative writings in their original Latin, focusing not only on well-known classical texts but also on patristic and medieval ones.

Requirements

Saint Louis University offers a minor in Latin. To complete the minor, students take 18 credits of coursework related to Latin language and literature.

Code	Title	Credits
Required Courses
LATN 1010	Reading Latin I	3
LATN 1020	Reading Latin II	3
LATN 2010 or LATN 2020	Intermediate Latin: Language & Literature Intermediate Latin: Rhetoric and Poetry	3
Latin Elective Courses		6
Students also take 6 credits of courses either 2000-level or higher in Latin with the Latin attribute. Examples of such courses, which are commonly taught, are:
LATN 4020	Roman Letter Writers
LATN 4230	Cicero as Essayist
LATN 4280	Readings in Saint Augustine
LATN 4330	Readings in Select Historians
Total Credits		15

Continuation Standards

Students with a minor in Latin must maintain a 2.00 GPA in courses required for the minor.

Contact Us

For additional information about this program, please contact theology@slu.edu or call 314-977-2881.