

GLOBAL MANAGEMENT & DECISION MAKING, POST-BACCALAUREATE CERTIFICATE

Saint Louis University's post-baccalaureate certificate in global management and decision-making prepares professionals to lead and make sound decisions in an increasingly interconnected business environment. The program in the Richard A. Chaifetz School of Business emphasizes ethical, data-driven decision-making while building an understanding of how global dynamics, operations and technology shape modern organizations. Students learn to connect global dynamics with local practices, equipping them to navigate uncertainty and drive organizational success in diverse contexts.

Through case analysis, simulations, and applied learning experiences, students strengthen their ability to analyze problems, communicate insights clearly and collaborate effectively in team settings. As part of SLU's Professional MBA program, the certificate offers a flexible, high-impact pathway for working professionals to build globally relevant leadership capabilities while progressing toward a broader graduate business education.

Admission Requirements

The Chaifetz School uses a holistic admissions approach to carefully evaluate all applicants, considering every aspect of their application. While an undergraduate degree is required for admission, a business background is not. Applicants may be required to submit their:

- Completed online application (<https://gradapply.slu.edu/apply/>)
- Transcript(s) from all previously attended institutions
- 1-2 letters of recommendation
- Résumé/CV

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis once all application materials are received. The average time for admissions decisions is two weeks.
